Obituary

Monday morning Mrs. Elias Rippee was found dead by her grandson, who made his home with her. She was lying on the floor near her bed and it is presumed she arose during the night and was stricken with heart failure before she could get back to bed. She was a pioneer resident of this section and the business houses, as a mark of respect, closed during the hour of the funeral, which was conducted from the home at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. Joseph Davis of the Mansfield C. P. church.
Tabitha Jane Hardin was born at Hazelwood, Mo., Nov. 2, 1850, and died in Mansfield Nov. 22, 1915, aged 65 years and 20 days. At an early age she united with the C. P. church. She was married to Elias Rippee April 5, 1865, to which union were born 3 daughters, one of whom preceded her parents in death. Mr. Rippee died April 1, 1913. The two daughters living are Mrs. Dougherty of Washington and Mrs. Henderson of Springfield. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Lewis of Bashers and Mrs. Sanders of Ft. Collins, Col.; one brother, Nathan Hardin of Claremore, Okla., and 9 grandchildren. One sister and one brother preceded her in death.
Among those present at the funeral were Mrs. Lewis of Bashers, L. D. Henderson and wife of Springfield, C. E. Sanders of Ft. Collins, Col., S. L. Sanders and Mrs. Homer Tomlinson of Mountain Grove. All the grandchildren were present.
The bereaved ones have the sympathy of our people.

Rev. J. W. Needham was called to Ava Saturday to conduct the funeral at the M. E. church of Dr. S. Hockensmith, who died at his home near Arno at 7:30 a. m. Friday. Deceased was a former pastor of the Ava and Mansfield M. E. churches and is well known to our readers. He was born in Independence June 15, 1844. He was in the ministry for half a century, having entered the work in his 21st year. He joined the St. Louis conference of the M. E. church at Mountain Grove in 1911. Sept. 28, 1898, he was married to Anna Edith Fantom, who survives him.

The 4-year-old daughter of Geo. Lyles and wife died Tuesday morning of diphtheria. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of our people.

Her Son Subject to Croup

"My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, New Kensington, Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv."

Rheumatism and Allied Pains—They Must Go!

The congestion of the blood in its flow causes pain. Sloan's Liniment penetrates to the congestion and starts the blood to flow freely. The body's warmth is restored; the pain is gone. The man or woman who has rheumatism, neuralgia or other pain and fails to keep Sloan's Liniment in their home is like a drowning man refusing a rope. Why suffer? Get a bottle of Sloan's. 25c and 50c. $1.00 bottle holds six times as much as 25c size. Adv.

Now Lookout

When a cold hangs on, as often happens, or when you have hardly gotten over one cold before you contract another, lookout for you are liable to contract some very serious disease. This succession of colds weakens the system and lowers the vitality so that you are much more liable to contract chronic catarrh, pneumonia or consumption. Cure your cold while you can. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation. It is relied upon by thousands of people and never disappoints them. Try it. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Colds Do Not Leave Willingly

Because a cold is stubborn is no reason why you should be. Instead of "wearing it out," get sure relief by taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Dangerous bronchial and lung ailments often follow a cold which has been neglected at the beginning. As your body faithfully battles those cold germs, no better aid can be given than the use of this remedy. Its merit has been tested by old and young. Get a bottle to-day. 50c and $1.00. Adv.
